Full recognition was given to the necessity for intra-office issuances with the complete understanding that these would not duplicate material contained in the above-mentioned publications. It was further tentatively agreed that there should be one point within the Agency responsible for the development of all Regulations and Notices and that that point should be the present Regulations Control Staff of the Office of the DD/A which would, insofar as

2. George Meloon telephoned to say that he had looked over the various assignment possibilities for [REDACTED] and had decided that the most suitable vacancy for him would be in the Records Management Program under [REDACTED]. I told him that I would like to think this over and would call him tomorrow.

3. [REDACTED] called to say that a [REDACTED] had telephoned him concerning some change in the "coffee line regulations" which had inconvenienced him. [REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] was incensed and irate to the extent of being incoherent. I told him that I would have someone from our Personnel Relations Branch contact [REDACTED] tomorrow to find out what his trouble is.

4. Mr. Wolf and I attended a presentation by the Logistics Office in connection with our administrative support relationships with the Department of Defense. It was a very enlightening presentation and showed that we have made very substantial progress in this field since our reorganization of last summer.
